Wrong Place.
For many years a faithful housekeeper worked for a bad-tempered old bachelor, but finally grew tired of his eternal complaints and decided to leave him. Bidding her time, therefore she informed him that she was going to California.

"To California?" he repeated, in alarm. "What to do there, pray?"
"To find a husband," she answered, boldly. "They say there are many more men than women in California."

"Bah!" the old bachelor snarled.
"Don't flatter yourself that you'll find husband among them, woman. It's true that men are in the majority, but they're not the marrying sort. They're runaway husbands who've gone to California in search of a little peace!"

Harsh Criticism.
Lord Kitchener was very harshly criticized the last two years of his life.
But he could not complain, for he was always a very harsh critic himself.

Thus, when Lord Kitchener went to South Africa to take charge of the Boer war, one of the generals whom he was supplanting said to him:
"Well, how do you propose to reorganize the transport?"
"Reorganize it?" said Kitchener.
"I'll organize it."

Evidence.
"I guess the ancients must have had their troubles with careless servants, too."
"What makes you think so?"
"Just look at the way those old time pieces of statuary are all smashed up."

PROBLEM CONFRONTS STEEL INDUSTRY

IS HOW TO GET MATERIAL AND LABOR TO MEET THE UNPRE-CEDENTED DEMAND.

Five Hundred Million Dollars Has Been Contracted For in Iron and Steel Industries.

Western Newspaper Union News Service.
Chicago.—Five Hundred million dollars has been contracted for in iron and steel industries as the first development of the biggest boom in the history of the Central Western States.
This fact was brought out at the final session of the Structural Steel Society. This organization of two score of men at the head of the industry discussed the situation as one that presages unprecedented prosperity for all workers, regardless of the outcome of the present election. "Never at any time in our economic life has the United States experienced such an expansion of building," said F. W. Ives, of Decatur, Ill., president. His summary was based on reports furnished by Secretary A. L. Denniston, Rochester, Ind., to the effect that the structural men throughout the country are unable to get sufficient supplies of iron and steel to construct bridges and steel skeletons for buildings, and to engage in the industries that require this material.

NO WEAKNESS AT THE END

Clancy's Comment on Old Friend's Clearness of Intellect Apparently a True One.

A local architect is sponsor for the following Irish anecdote: Pat was reported lying at death's door, so Clancy and McManigan determined to call upon him and do what they could to ease his last moments. Arriving at Pat's domicile, they were admitted by the sick man's weeping wife and conducted to the chamber of not-far-off death.

Pat looked very bad indeed, and his friends hardly knew whether they had come in time or not. But the near-dead man rose up as they neared the bed. One grizzled hand pointed forward at the bedside and in a weak whisper the sick man bade his friends hand him that which he sought. They looked underneath and found a jug, which Pat joyfully clasped to his breast.

"I want," says he, "fer you, me friends, to take a last bit of a swig with me."

Acquiescing, Clancy grasped the jug and removed the stopper. He placed his nose to the opening, a smile creasing his rugged countenance. Before drinking, however, he turned to Mc-Manigan. "Sure and he's sensible to the very ind," said he, nodding sagely.

RELIABLE REMEDY RESTORES KIDNEYS

For many years druggists have watched with much interest the remarkable record maintained by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is a physician's prescription.
Swamp-Root is a strengthening medicine. Dr. Kilmer used it for years in his private practice. It helps the kidneys, liver and bladder do the work nature intended they should do.

Swamp-Root has stood the test of years.
It is sold by all druggists on its merit and it will help you. No other remedy can successfully take its place.

Be sure to get Swamp-Root and start treatment at once.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr.
Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and

She Had Her Doubts.
"Mother," asked Mattie, "is this house yours or father's?"
"Why, I guess your father owns it, but he and I are in partnership, you know, so I guess it is mine as much as his."

"Why, mother, I did not know you were in partnership with father. When did that happen?"
"Oh," said mother, laughingly, "it began before you were born."

"Well, mother," said the child,
"don't let father cheat you."

bystanders the price of bread has few

AVOIDING FRICTION AT HOME WIFE IN PATHETIC PLAINT

Wife of Man Prominent in Public Life Has Some Theories Just About Correct.

The wife of a man just now very prominent in national affairs has been talking to reporters. She believes that marriage is good for men in public life. And she thinks there should be no friction in the home. The lady says:

"That is what I try most to do, to avoid friction. My duty lies in my home. Our home life is a very happy one. I am chiefly interested in that, as I have told you. I try to keep it calm and normal, whatever the situation."

It is not necessary for a woman to have a husband who may be president in order to put into practice the theory thus outlined. If it were possible to discover the facts it would be found that most of the men who amount to anything in any line of effort owe a huge debt to the prudent, skillful, calm and quiet care of their wives in and for their homes.

Man is usually an unreasonable and often a disagreeable animal. He means well, and hopes for the best, but it is easy to offend him, and those he loves best are likely to suffer most. The wife who can understand him and will take the trouble to smooth off the rough edges and go around the weak spots, is the better man or the two.
—Knickerbocker Press.

New Definition.
"What's a diplomat?" asked Mrs.
Bathurst of her husband.

"A diplomat," said her husband's bachelor friend maliciously, "is a husband who after losing forty dollars at poker can smile as he hands his wife the dollar and twenty cents he says he won."

Abundant Supply.
"Have you always kept your promises?"

"I couldn't keep 'em all," admitted Senator Sorghum. "But I have usually been able to substitute still better ones for those that didn't pan out."

Evidently Good Lady Was Not a Strong Believer in the Principle of Reciprocity.

"Oh, George," said Mrs. Bridge, "on your way downtown this morning will you stop at the grocer's and order two pounds of butter and a half pound of tea and some crackers?"

"Yes, my dear."
"And would you mind leaving my skirt at the tailor's as you go by?"

"Yes, my dear."
"And then go to the milkman's and tell him to leave an extra pint of cream to-morrow?"

"Yes, my dear."
"And when you get to your office will you call up my sister and tell her I'll be over Tuesday? They don't charge you for calls there."

"Yes, my dear, and say, wife, would you mind sewing up this little rip in my coat before I start?"

"Good land, aren't you men terrible!
You're always wanting something done."—Exchange.

Plans to Save Time.
"Mother, may I stay up five minutes longer?" asked Tommie.

"Now, what good would five minutes longer do you?" said mother, "and it would only result in breaking the rule about your bedtime."

"Well, mother, I could save time by planning what I shall do tomorrow," but mother was not convinced.

Incomplete Example.
"I'm afraid Claude Reginald has a champagne appetite," remarked the pensive girl.

"Yes," replied Miss Cayenne. "And he hasn't even the beer income."

Quite to Be Expected.
"Mame is a duck of a girl. How is she coming on?"

"Oh, swimmingly."
